“ So much I can say about my Dad. He has always been a very unique character. Besides from being a very devoted Catholic-convert he was always a fan of Sci-Fi! Some of that has stuck with me my whole life and continues to the next generation of Luttrells...Olivia. We love Star Wars and it all started with my Dad introducing me to it. I remember him trying to figure out the surround sound himself just so he could hear Spock's footsteps walk on 360 degrees around the deck of the Starship Enterprise in a Star Trek movie. I remember him using freeze frame to pause a certain scene in Star Wars because he loves a certain ship and he could find images of it anywhere (pre-Internet!!!). Then he would print and frame the images. He was always so passionate about Forbidden Planet and Robbie The Robot!! He would quote lines from his favorite movies, collect certain memorabilia, and listen to many of their scores and soundtracks. More than I ever realized...that made a huge impact on my viewing of media, collecting, and love of soundtracks!!

Well I had this itch in my brain to make the attached video!

RIP Dad and May The Force Be With You!

“ Stan was so welcoming to me when Dave first introduced me to his Dad, and he always made me feel right at home. He had the kindest heart and always found something for us to chat about. We had some crazy conversations at times, but always ended with laughs and happiness. His love for life and kindness towards others was always sincere-he had a way of making everyone smile. I will always remember just how much he cared for animals and the many pups he had throughout the years.

I really enjoyed the afternoon we met you and Billie to 95ate5 for some beer and lunch. I remember just how nice it was being able to spend time with you both. You shared some stories with us, we had some laughs, and I remember you disappeared for a while. Eventually we got a bit worried and we found you in the giant empty room admiring the crazy decor. Olivia then decided to give you and Billie a tour of the place as if she worked there. Haha

I have so many great memories. Like the time you came over and swore you were not hungry no matter how many times I offered something to eat. Once the morning hit, both you and my entire Marconi bread loaf disappeared. It was funny. You made Dave and I laugh about it even years later. We knew it was you.

Anyways, we are really going to miss you. Thanks for all the wonderful memories you've given us over the years. Thank you for raising an incredible son, who has become an amazing husband and father. We will forever keep you and your memories on our hearts.

We love you, Stan. Til we meet again.
