“ Nobody loved her kids and did more for the children in the community and especially the kids from Mt. Carmel in Chicago Heights than Mrs. Amadio. Mrs. Amadio volunteered constantly, organizing events, mother's club, graduation dance committee's, working every hot dog day, every Sunday at the basketball games, fundraisers, you name it. The Amadio house was always full of kids and teens, the pool overflowing with activity, a basement buzzing with noise and she just managed every bit of it with her huge smile and then made room for more. Luckily she had two kitchens in the house to feed the never ending line of kids. Growing up with Mamma Kay as your second mom was a privilege so many of us were blessed and lucky to have. You have earned your rest Mrs. Amadio and being reunited with Mr. Amadio who we lost way, way too soon. May you have endless Bingo trips, dance every day, win at Keno and the Lotto constantly, have hair to die for and enjoy your everlasting life ahead.
