

Dana Allen Cervak

December 15, 1954 - August 12, 2017

Dana Allen Cervak, age 62 of Orland Park, passed away on August 12, 2017.

Dana was born December 15, 1954 in Berwyn, Illinois to Robert and Audrey Cervak. He was proud to be a police officer where he dedicated his entire professional career in law enforcement, finally retiring as a Lieutenant, after 28 years of service. He had a passion for animals, drawing and his quick wit and sense of humor were enjoyed by everyone who knew him.

Dana is survived by his wife Jean Cervak (nee Moscato) and step children whom he dearly loved, Tammi (Brett) Williams of Chicago and Kevin (Christy) Smith of Plainfield. Five grandchildren who referred to him as "Papa" and who always looked forward to his jokes. Son of Audrey and the late Robert Cervak of Crete whom he loved dearly. Brother of Andrea (Rick) Johnson of Monee and Kyle (Sue) Cervak of Homewood and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Family and friends and others whose lives Dana touched are invited to a Memorial visitation Thursday, August 17th between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. at Heartland Memorial Center, 7151 183rd Street, Tinley Park.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be given to the Animal Humane Society at www.animalhumanesociety.org.
