“ Jackie, Pat and Michael,

I found this Irish Funeral prayer to be consoling... I hope it is the same for you.

Cousin Janice

An Irish Funeral Prayer

Death is nothing at all.

It does not count.

I have only slipped away into the next room.

Everything remains as it was.

The old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged.

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by the old familiar name.

Speak of me in the easy way that you always used.

Put no sorrow in your tone.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.

Let it be spoken without effort

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was.

There is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.

One brief moment and all will be as it was before.

How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting, when we meet again.

“ Dear Jackie, Pat and Michael,

I will never forget Danny's smile - it lit up his entire face, sending a sparkle to his eyes, which alerted all in view that some playful witticism was about to cross his lips.

Although I could not be with you all today, I am with you in spirit in my thoughts and prayers.

*Lovingly,
Cousin Janice (Sullivan) Ruffolo*

“ My dearest cousins, please accept our condolences on Danny's death. I will always remember him smiling and laughing, especially at family gatherings. You are all very dear to me, and I'm very sorry I will be unable to attend the service. I live in Clearwater, Florida, as do my adult children. I would love to see you when I'm in Chicago next time, so please give me a call so we can stay in touch. Diane Walsh and family
