“ To the Hodge family sorry about the death of Doris, she seemed to have been loved and cared for by many. Death is an enemy that leaves so much pain and emptiness. Almighty God will soon remove the suffering and will do away with death forever. Isaiah 25:8 says: " He(Jehovah) will swallow up death, and wipe tears from all faces."

“ I like to picture Aunt Doris being greeted by her mother (Gertrude) and father (Ethridge), and an extended arm by her late nephew Grant Hubbard who is ushering her to a card game already in progress. A card game of course organized by her brother Uncle Harry, where she takes her rightful place at the card table with her brother Uncle Bob (Junior), his wife Aunt Jackie, and of course her late husband Uncle Bud!

Oh what fond memories, you know what I am talking about cousins! Spaghetti dinners, Angle food cake, kiddy cocktails, and late night "Creature Features" on TV - WAY past our bed times of course. Card nights at Grandpa Keene's live on in our hearts and memories.

Couldn't have asked for a better Aunt - what a blessing to have had her in our lives.

“ My prayers go out to the entire Hodge family. I am Gloria's niece and I lived with Jeff and Gloria during my college years. Doris was always so friendly and loved her family so very much. That, I know. I enjoyed asking her about her casino trips and the fun she would have on all of her vacations. She will be missed very much. Please take care during this difficult time. Love, Sara Olson and daughter Cate
