“ Dear Kim, Brad, John, June, Jerry and Debby, and extended families of all, please accept my sincere sympathy to all of you. My memories of Dwayne will forever be of how wonderful he always was to Brandi and me. He had such a wicked sense of humor at such a young age. I can close my eyes and see him on the altar at St. Basil, being Brandi's Godfather on her Christening Day. I have had my friends in both San Diego and Chapel Hill, NC add all of you to their prayer circles. God Bless You All and keep you in His care. Another bright star now shines down on all of you from Heaven.##imported-begin##Kathy Schuhl##imported-end##

“ We just wanted to tell you Dwayne how very much we cared. We will be eternally grateful for all the good times we shared. We had our ups and downs in life we're sorry to say is true But in good times and bad times we never stopped loving you. We have to say we'll miss you now that you've gone away. But through the grace of God we will be reunited with you someday.##imported-begin##Jerry & Debby ##imported-end##
