“ Elaine and I always went to lunch and bingo twice a month at the Leo Hassert Center in Manteno. We always enjoyed each others company. I really missed her when she had moved to a new assisted living home. My deepest sympathy to Elaines family.

The family so appreciates all that you did for our Mom. She loved getting out and playing Bingo or cards. Thank you for the kind words.

Thank you Arlene. It certainly has become the place to reconnect with friends/neighbors. Homeland Road had a full reunion at Mom's services. What awesome memories that were shared. Mom loved her coffee clutches. Thanks you for the kind words.

"Elaine and I crossed paths in many ways throughout the years. As cousins, friends, teacher to parent(Sherry and Chuck), and also as supporters of Zion Lutheran School. But, our family ties meant the most. All of our relatives knew that Elaine was an amazing cook and baker, Her potato salad was raved about by all at family gatherings. We had many happy times at their parents' home on 183rd Street. Often, we would run down the hill in front and gather lightning bugs in the summer. Elaine took great pride in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She will be missed by many. But, we also know that her pain and suffering have ended. We, Vogt cousins, have lost another family member that we all loved! Memories of happy times will live on for each of us as we recall the past. "

“ I remember Elaine's laugh. We had many laughs while we were in cosmetology school in Matteson back in the 70's. Oh what fun. Elaine always had me in stitches either by what she did or said. She continued on with her career as a hairdresser & a very good one. She really loved her family and they loved her. After a long struggle, she is at peace in the Lord. We will miss her.

Interesting the things people remember. We didn't get the chance to hear mom laugh much while raising the 4 of us. She was such a hard working woman and always very, very busy. I know her friends were able to enjoy the other side of her and we have heard many great stories. It seems as if there were always another story to be told by mom that we hadn't heard before just like her father (Grandpa Butzer), but yet we didn't hear much laughter from Mom which is really sad to think about now. Thank you for letting us see the other side too.

“ Elaine will always be remembered for all of the good times and laughter that we had at the campgrounds and who was a very good, dear friend of my Mom and Dad.

Thank you for sharing. I wish I had been able to go to some of those campfires but that wasn't in the plans of life. She is enjoying the campfire around the clouds now and will certainly be missed very much.
