“ My Dear Cousin Elaine,

Our lives intertwined so much growing up together sharing the fun and the laughter. God gave you many challenges that you faced with dignity and courage.

God has called you home and I will miss you 💕

Love Chickie

“ To the Shigley Family:

I had the opportunity to speak with Elaine many time at various functions at St. George. She was a very sweet, giving person and she will be missed as she was an important part of the St. George family. God's Blessings to Elaine and to her family.

Mary Hagan, St. George

“ I served with Elaine on the Parish Pastoral Council, and through our service as Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors. Elaine loved Jesus and shared his love with her kind, caring heart and generous spirit. Elaine often talked about looking forward to the day she would be with Jesus. My pray and hope is that Elaine is enjoying heavenly fellowship with her Lord, and sharing her love and care with all the Saints in Heaven.
