“ Sandra, Diane, Tom, and Family, I was heart broken to hear about your dad's death. I just found out on the internet of his death. I respect your dad in many ways and enjoyed my younger life with him. I especially enjoyed us all playing Football and Baseball at the Lawndale address. I will say a prayer for him and your family. I also wanted to get you information about my sister Sue and Linda. They both have cancer and Susie has terminal cancer and Linda's was caught in time. I am sorry to bring you the bad news. Miss you guys and maybe someday we will get to see you again.

Love your friend

Fritz was my Mother's.. Janet Blume's father.. Howard Blume's 1st cousin. Mother & I had just come to Mokena 3 weeks ago and taken Fritz to a lovely 3 hour dinner out at 1 of his favorite German restaurants in the neighborhood with live music playing. it was truly a magical evening. We also took him to Aunt Dorothy's 95th birthday party just 2 days later where 70 people were gathered for this special event as well. When we dropped Fritz off at home we sang with him God Be with you until we meet again at Jesus Feet..He missed his wife Dolores terribly and loved her dearly. He has been reunited now with her and his Lord & Savior Jesus Christ right after Easter!! Prase to the Lord Amen!! He is Risen Indeed!! We love you Fritz. you were a beautiful Soul on this earth & one to emulate a life well lived:~!
