“ Words can not express the loss that we all feel with Harry's absence. For all of the guys, to have said that they have all shared a lot since they were little boys is so valuable! Having a friend is wonderful and no value can be placed on this intangible. Ron has lost his "buddy". As we age, our lives take different turns and we do not see each other often. But, when we do, there is no "catching up"..it just takes right off where we left off last time. Your Mom and I had the same connection as Ron and Harry did. Laughter and tears fill our days. But, most of all there is an abundance of love out here for each of you. The pride that your parents had for each of you continues to shine as you prepare for yet another experience that life has given you...death! Ron and I are so proud to have shared in all of your lives...from your births, school days, Immanuel Days, college times, weddings, farming times, picnics, and sad events as well. So, as I/we close this note...please contact if and when there is a need. We love you and support you, Julie(Dwayne, Brett, and Justin); Jill(Tom and Amanda); and, TIm.
We will always miss Harry and Janet!

*Love and friendship,
Ron and Diane and Family*
