“ I recently read about the death of Helen Niemeyer. My condolences goes out to the family and friends of Helen at this difficult time. I would like to share a promise from God's word the Bible, that have helped me in times of pain like this. At John 5:28&29, Jesus Christ promised that everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice when he calls, and awaken to perfect life on a Paradise Earth. Yes, this resurrection promise along with many more is a reality from The Sovereign Lord Jehovah, a" God who cannot lie."(Titus 1:2)

“ Donna, Diane, and Dean, Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time after losing your parents. What a memory I have of working for them at the coffee shop.
May the hope and comfort of Christ bring you peace. Our sincere sympathy.
