“ I've known Jim since my cousin Charlotte moved next door to him and Beverly 20 years ago. I've had the pleasure of seeing his beautiful Christmas window and yard displays and his train sets in his basement. He was a gentle loving soul. He's been so kind to my cousin Charlotte over the years. He will be surly missed. My sincere condolences to Jim's family and his special friends. May his soul rest in eternal peace.

“ Jim was a pillar at Saint James the Greater Parish in Sauk Village, Illinois. He was the director of the Eucharist to the homebound or shut in's. He always had a twinkle in his eye even when he watched as his beloved Bev entered her eternal life. They now will be reunited forever. Death may steal our loved ones from us but it can NEVER steal our memories, Jim made memories with everyone whom he came in contact with. May perpetual lite shie upon him as he enters into the gates of Heaven! May Angels escort him to the face of God!
