“ I just saw the article about James' accident. We are distant cousins that just connected in October '10. We shared conversations, pictures, e-mails and were excited to find parts of our family with so much in common. We had faith, family and connecting in common. We had looked forward to meeting each other on a trip he planned on taking on his motorcycle to LA. Because of his obvious faith in God, I now hope to meet him face to face in heaven. My condolences to his family and mine. Kathy McFall Wiley##imported-begin##Kathleen McFall Wiley##imported-end##

“ Ill always cherish the memory of growing up with you. The man you became, and the friendship you showed all of us. So many of our class would have never had the opportunity to reacquaint ourselves without you. Ill always remember you.

You friend,
