“ The death of Jan saddens me ~ it's beyond what words can truly express. My heart is heavy and I miss her dearly. As anyone who knows her, she was a wonderful person who cared and gave so much of herself to others. From our first meeting in sign class, I have been blessed to have her as part of my life. I 'm grateful for all the memories and I will hold them closer to me. I send each of you my deepest condolences and love, Darlene ##imported-begin##Dar Bauman##imported-end##

“ To the family of Jan, I extend my deepest sympathy.

I was privileged to have worked with Jan at Applied Systems. She was always very kind, generous and helpful and above all a great friend.

I will truly miss her. May she rest in peace for all the goodness she shared while in our lives and the positive difference she made to me personally.

“ Tiger was my sister and co-conspirator for all the trouble we got into as kids. I remember cutting swim practice by hiding in the dugouts at the local ball field, playing princess chair instead of sleeping and teasing her every time she sorted packages at Christmas. I will miss our phone conversations when she is coming home from grocery shopping and any other time one of the animals did something stupid or funny. I miss you so much.##imported-begin##Kathy Godbout##imported-end##

“ Jan and Mike are neighbors to our son PJ and daughter in law Amy and our granddaughter Emily along with their dog Tessa. Jan and Mike were so welcoming and friendly to them when they first moved in. Jan and I had a couple conversations as she was from the city like I. I knew she went to Mother McCauley and I went to Maria. She left this world way too soon. I hope that God hopes Mike and Jan's family close during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Karen & Pat Donlon##imported-end##
