“ Dear Di and family, we all feel so sad to hear of Johns passing. We are also grateful that we have had the opportunity to know you and John over the years. I will always remember every time I called your house and talked to John his first words were, " how are you doing." No matter how he was feeling. Your devotion and caring didn't go unnoticed by anyone. Please remember that in times of grief. Rio, Jimmy and Don (your pool guys)

“ So sorry to hear of John's passing. I always remember our Sup. Lou Stella needed to see him every morning. I would drive Lou down to the Receiving Office for the morning visit everyday, back in the 1990s. John was always so nice. We all will miss him.
