Dear Jack:

Thank you for being there for me! I will miss your sweet face, my good friend! You and your family had a special place in my heart, especially when I lost my sons, Bob & Eric. God bless your sweet kindness & care, in good times & in bad. And those cute, golf socks always made me smile too. :) God loves you you Jack, and so do I. May God Rest your sweet soul. Amen. Love always, Nicolette Z. ❤️

“ To the Killacky Family:

Sorry for your loss. Jack was a good Union man and even a better person. He touched the lives of many people and I will always remember him as a steadfast and true friend. You and Jack will be in our prayers and thoughts.

“ Back in the spring of 2010 when I moved into my house, Jack was the first person to welcome me to the block. Growing up in Chicago, it was nice knowing that there were great people just across the street from me. I enjoyed getting to know Jack and Peggy, through Jack’s great stories and jokes, Jack was one of a kind. I will always remain grateful for knowing Jack, and I am proud to call him my Friend. My family always enjoyed Jack’s friendly, humorous disposition as well.

Even though I am four thousand miles away today, I am feeling emptiness in my heart, in the space my friend occupied; I will miss Jack greatly. My deepest and most sincere condolences are with Peggy and the Killacky Family on your loss. Please take some solace in the fact Jack will always remain in our hearts, at least especially in mine.

“ Lana and Jack Fisher, parents of Cheryl Carter and grandparents of Austin and Skye Carter who are next door neighbors had the privilege of talking to both Jack and Peggy on many occasions, send our prayers and sympathy on the passing of Jack. He was an outgoing and caring man. He went out of his way to befriend my grandchildren and always have a cute comeback in any of our conversations. What a joy and privilege it was to know him.

HE WILL BE MISSED
