“ My name is Patrick. I met jack in 2003. I was one of his students at richards high school in oak lawn. Years later when he walked into the same bar I was at I remembered him immediately. He was a great teacher and a great man. He didn't really remember me bacause he had hundreds of students a year for so many years but I could tell he appreciated that I remembered him. I always looked forward to seeing jack. He was always very friendly and easy going and always made time to talk to me when I saw him and always had a smile to give me. He was never in a bad mood. Sometimes after a rough day at work being able to sit on the bar stool next to jack was like a treat. I was always remember my teacher mr. Strombeck and my friend jack.
