“ Uncle Larry will be missed by so many, I will miss he’s calls. I would be so busy at work and out of nowhere think of calling him waiting for a half hour of free time, cause I always needed that much time to jabber and with in a day or two he would call me like we had a ESP thing going.. I will miss our chats every few months or so.. Having a connection with him really helped me cope with missing my dad.. Never got to see a lot of him living faraway, but loved him just the same.. our conversations with worth gold.. Jean
