“ Lemont and Janet & Family -

We cannot begin to imagine how you are feeling at this time with the lost of your beloved son/brother/father/grandson, "Monty." To lose a loved one is like losing a piece of yourself...But the love "Monty" brought you did not leave...the essence of him lingers...It can't escape your heart for it's been there so long. Cling to the memories and let them find their way to heal your heart. The love and the laughter, the joy and the togetherness you shared will make you strong. You'll come to realize that your time together no matter how long or short, you were blessed to have such a precious gift in your life.

Although at this time you may feel a deep sorrow that is not easily dispelled, the God of comfort will help you through this time of sadness. He says: "For I, Jehovah your God, am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, 'Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.'" - Isaiah 41:13.

Let the loving and fond memories of "Monty" engulf your hearts and minds and keep you moving forward. As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends.

Love Always, Your Friends - Rory & Sheila##imported-begin##Rory and Sheila Caffey##imported-end##

“ Dear Bro & Sis Colquitt,
We are so sorry that you and your family have to experience this painful loss. We can see and feel more clearly that death is not something that we were suppose to experience.
It leaves us powerless but not hopeless. We have a guarantee that death will one day be just a fading memory. Rev.21:3,4.
Until then keep hoping in Jehovah and let his work ease the pain.
