

Madeline Rosenbach

April 7, 1919 - November 23, 2014

95, passed away from natural causes on Sunday, November, 23, 2014
Daughter of late Ernest and late Marie Botel. Sister to Marie Schnepf of Palmetto, FL; late Dolores Cibic; late William (Loretta) Botel. Step-Mother of late Mary Louise Godette.

Preceded in death by her husband, Charles B. Rosenbach and her son, William F. Rosenbach.

She is survived by her daughter, Barbara Rosenbach, Lakewood, CO and her step-son, Charles (Maureen) Rosenbach, South Dennis, MA.

Grandmother to Daniel (Jo Nell) Shaw; Siobhan Shaw; Nicholas Rosenbach; Joseph (Kelley) Rosenbach; Daniel Rosenbach; Loretta (Gary) Damon; Marie (Gene) Kelting; Michael (Laura) Godette; Nancy Birdwell; Larry (Patti) Godette and 10 great grand children and 2 great-great grandchildren.

Her life was guided by her deep religious faith. Her strength manifested itself with the selfless care she provided for her husband and son during their final days.

Madeline was retired from employment with the State of Illinois. She was also employed by the U.S. Government, the Pullman Company and the Blackstone Hotel in downtown Chicago. She was a member of NARFE, Eiche Turner, DANK and numerous St. George Church groups.

Her passions and interests were many which included travel, fashion, German culture, collecting donations for the Alzheimer's charity, cooking, sewing and crafts. Her zest for driving began with just one lesson, which she enjoyed until she was 95.

Her travels took her all across the United States, Canada and Germany. She had a special place in her heart for Florida.
