“ Uncle Mark, although your suffering is over, for us it has just begun. I will always remember you as kind, considerate and generous. I'm so very thankful that my children not only "knew" a great uncle, but developed a close personal relationship with you. The one very IMPORTANT life lesson I have learned from this sudden tragedy is that I must show and express love, kindness & thoughtfulness to everyone I care about becuz tomorrow truely is not gaurunteed to ANY OF US. The Sun will not go down on you, for the light you shine now is an eternal one. Love you 4vr & always

“ Mark, my big brother....I will miss you so much. You showed us what pure, unconditional love is. You always had a smile on your face and a kind word to say to everyone! You cared so much about everyone's lives and always rememberd all of your nieces and nephews birthdays!! I will forever be thankful to you for leading me to Jesus Christ and for letting us witness you living out your faith through many very difficult and dark days. I will surely see you again in Heaven. I take comfort in knowing that your eyes behold the wonders and beauty of Heaven. I love you, Trina

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May Jehovah God provide you with peace and comfort during the difficult days ahead. Hopefully meditating on the following scriptures will also help during your mourning, 2 Corinthians 1:3, Isaiah 25:8, & Revelation 21: 3,4.

“ Uncle Mark,

I love you so very much. I will definitely miss you, and think about you everynight. Your great faith was awesome. My church group prayed for you to find peace and I know that you are in God's hands and with your dad. You will never ever be forgotten. I was lucky to have you as an uncle.

Love, Mallory

“ I will miss you Mark, you had such a kind soul and a gentle heart. You will never be forgotten. Your faith was an inspiration to me and my life is better for having you in it as my brother. You deserve to be in the "exclusive" room in Heaven, having the time of your life, free from the pain of this world and restored to your true self. I LOVE YOU.
