“ Finding Mary Ann's notice in the paper today triggered memories of stories of social outings enjoyed by Ruth Lindberg and Maurine Armond, Chicago Heights friends. We can remember Ruth talking of her and Irv's special friendship with Mary Ann and Joe. Although these two special ladies cannot share their bond with Mary Ann, a big gab fest is surely in progress in heaven. Accept our sympathies for your loss,
Cathy and Jim Sporleder (Jim's dad Mel, Ruth and Maurine were cousins)

“ Mary Ann Perozzi was a very special and beloved neighbor of the Wilczynski family. We looked forward to and greatly enjoyed her visits in the afternoon at 3:00 pm with Eva for cocktails. I especially enjoyed having her gin martini ready for her when she arrived at our home. I have many beautiful memories of Mary Ann that I will always cherish. She was a truly beautiful woman inside and out. She made the world a much better place. I will miss you, Mrs. Perozzi. Rest in peace.
