“ I'll always remember the Aunt JoAnne of my youth with the great legs and short shorts. She taught my sister Linda & I a cheer from her high school (Parker) which began "go back, go back, go back to the woods"....which we thought was so cool. We always stopped at a little bar near Indian Lake, MI where JoAnne would have a cocktail and she would get Linda & me cherry cokes which she said was our cocktail. We often took a drive with her to Midway airport and there we would sit or lay on her car and watch the planes take off over us. Although I never heard Aunt JoAnne sing in person, I once heard a tape and she had a beautiful operatic voice. It makes me happy to know she is now singing in heaven and has reunited with her mom and dad, her 2 big brothers (George & Norman) and her little sisters (Nancy). God Bless You Aunt JoAnne.

“ I'll always remember the Aunt JoAnne of my youth. She had great legs and liked to wear really short, shorts. She taught my sister Linda & me a cheer from her high school(Parker) which went "go back, go back, go back to the woods"... She would take us to Midway airport where Linda & I would lay on her car to watch the planes take off. And there's the traditional cherry cokes we would get in a little bar, right before continuing on to the cabin in Indian Lake, MI for our summer vacation. It makes me happy that she lived a full life and is now being reunited with her mom and dad, her big brothers (George and Norman) and her little sister (Nancy), along with the love of her life, Vic. God Bless You Aunt JoAnne. Sharon
