“ I remember Uncle Mike since I was a child after he married my Aunt Marie. He was so much fun to be around, and I always thought the world of him. He had a huge heart and was such a wonderful husband to Marie. During the loss of my father in 1988, I remember Mike being there for our family. He loved my Dad (Harold Baldwin) very much, and the feeling was mutual. Sharon, you and all your family will be in my prayers. Rest in peace, Mike!
