“ We didn't know you personally, Polly, but we knew all about you from your brother Father Chuck. He would often tell us about you and your joy for life and your faithful acceptance of the Lord's will for you. "It is what it is! you would say. How beautiful it is to go through life with this complete trust in the Lord's plan for us. You suffered much, but took it all in stride with grace and with a loving family and many friends at your side. Now, you will rest in peace with the Lord for eternity. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family and relatives in this time of sadness. But, we know that your life has been a precious gift to many and the memories you have bestowed will sustain them in the months and years to come. We bid you farewell with our deepest and most sincere sympathy and condolences.##imported-begin##Deacon Ronald and Connie Gronek, St. Monica's Church, Chicago, IL##imported-end##
