“ Pete and Elaine have been my neighbors for the past 8 years. All those years I can say I've never seen Pete without a smile on his face. When meeting him at the mailbox, chatting on the patio or seeing him at a holiday party held by a neighbor, he always had something good to say, always smiling and boy the stories he told us, kept us entertained for hours. He called my daughter Maryellen "princess". He always asked how is the princess? I will miss his smiling face and my heart breaks for you Elaine and your family for your loss. God Bless you all.
