“ My cousin and I were born weeks apart. We played little league baseball together and were very close. We even played war games together. Little did I know, but found out. On July 7th, 1964 we both went into the Army together. My dad and my uncle Adam (my godfather) drove us to Chicago (615 W. Van Buran) and said good-bye to us. We got separated after boot camp. He became a M.P. and I ended in the infantry and later ended up in Vietnam. Brothers every moment that we were together and memories that will never be forgotten. Till we meet again my brother..... I salute you, miss you till we meet again.
