“ Ardell and Debra Brown: Tom was a great guy and we shared many laughs together. We worked at Chicago State together for many years together. He will be truly missed in body but his kind spirit will live on. I'll miss our talks about the Palace Resorts. We will continue to keep the Kenny Family in our thoughts and prayers.

So sorry, we talked very often when he was concerned about his Doctor checkups and he was so happy when the news was always good for a long time.

“ Tom loved sitting on his back deck listening to the radio, jumping in the pool for a quick dip and always such a pleasant, warm hearted person. He loved his dogs and his wife Maggie as they would frequently stop for some friendly conversation during their daily/nightly walks in the neighborhood. He was a family man, loved his children dearly and was always so pleasant, never a harsh word about anyone...ever! You will be missed Tom and know you are in heaven on a sunny deck, next to a pool with lots of dogs and talk radio playing nearby. May God bless ! You are missed and loved by many Tom!
