Tom loved hunting for toys and stuffed animals for the flea market. He gave a lot of them away instead of selling them and put smiles on all the kids faces. He often came home and was excited to show me what he found.

“ Heartbroken to hear of Tom's passing. He was a regular at the Frankfort Goodwill. Can't tell you how many bags of stuffed animals he bought for the kids. Such a kind-hearted, generous guy. My deepest sympathies to all who loved him. I already miss our conversations at checkout. RIP Tom. You were a good one. Most sincerely, Nancy Tarwater

Tom boasted about how many Goodwill staff he knew by name. He went out almost every day but always made sure to stop into his favorite Goodwill locations on "senior discount" day! Most of those stuffed animals didn't get resold but given away.
