“ Condolences from the Keenan family, longtime neighbors of the Schramm family, three doors down, from about 1955-1999. I remember growing up under the watchful and caring eyes of Mr Bill and Mrs Anita Schramm. The 1960's were a whirl and swirl of families and children on Winchester Road. May God bless the Schramm family with sweet memories.

“ Bill was 'Cugi' (cousin-in-law) to Fraddo, my dad. Not more need be said that he was a loving member of the Perozzi-Portelli family. But, they were also great friends who enjoyed a drink and shared a passion for bird hunting. I was often along for the ride or hunt, and he was as kind and nurturing to me as any parent or uncle could be. Boy, did I like going to his sporting goods store! He will always hold an indelible image in my memory for he was the last person my father gazed upon from his deathbed before he slipped from conscientiousness. His last spoken word, at the sight of his special visitor, was, "Bill!". He passed a few hours later, and now, Bill joins him - RIP.

My sincere condolences to Nita and family. Love, Randy
