“ Extending sincere condolences to all during this time of grief. Hoping the many memories and the passing of time will help you to endure. Very soon the life Almighty God purposed in the beginning will be a reality for righteous and obedient mankind. Also those asleep in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. Please read John 5:28&29.

“ Bill, what a swell guy, a long time neighbor., and good friend. We were both in the Trades, him a Master Carpenter, and myself a Master Welder. We always had a lot of stories to share. We helped each other many times with projects around the house, him building my Deck, installing interior doors, etc. and Me fixing his yard equipment, Bird feeders, Flag pole, etc. After his move from our neighborhood, we kind of drifted apart, and I'm really sorry we didn't keep in touch as much as we should have. I will always remember Bill, he was a Great Guy, Husband and Father. My condolences to his Family.
